Note:

- All paid passes expire annually on September 30th.
- Specific expiration dates:
 - Annual: from October 1st to September 30th of the following year;
 - Semester: within the semester indicated in the academic calendar. The first semester card expires on the last day of this semester; that of the second semester expires on September 30th;
 - Monthly: 30 (thirty) continuous days (including Sundays) from the date of registration;
 - Temporary: 10 daily entrances to be used from the registration date until 30 September. Admissions not used by that date are lost.
- For annual passes there is the possibility of payment in two equal installments: the first must be made on the day of registration and the second within 30 days after registration.
- There are no other types of paid entrance, other than those listed above, neither partial nor reduced.
- Scholars who collaborate in Jesuit Institutions may access the Library under the same conditions as those for URBE users.
